

LIFE AFTER BUSH: YOUTH ACTIVISM & THE FIGHT FOR OUR FUTURE

A weekend long conference

for young activists dedicated to social and economic justice.

Speakers Include:

Doug Henwood, editor of Left Business Observer; Stephen Eric Bronner, author of Imagining the Possible: Radical Politics for Conservative Times; Christine Kelly, author of Chimes of Freedom: Student Protest and the Changing American University; John Mason, Chair, Dept. of Political Science, William Paterson University; Eric Schneiderman, State Senator (D), Washington Heights; Jonathan Rosen, founder of New York Unemployment Project; Ericka Bozzi-Gomez, Political and Organizing Lead SEIU 32BJ; Mikki Halpan, author of You Can Change the World Even if You're Under 18; Lenore Palladino, National Organizer for United Students Against Sweatshops; Ed Ott, Director New York City Central Labor Council and more...

Workshops and presentations on:

2004 Elections; April 25th March for Women's Lives; March 4th Books Not Bombs day of action; Iraq and U.S. Foreign Policy; Democratic Socialism; the Global Justice Movement; RNC Protests; High School Organizing; LGBTQ Activism; Student-Labor Solidarity; Independent Media; Creative Resistance; The U.S. Economy; Anti-war Activism on Campus...

For more info and registration:

www.ydsusa.org / 212-727-8610 x24

Organized by the Young Democratic Socialists and the Democratic Socialist Club at the Graduate Center, CUNY. Co-sponsored by the Continuing Education Program at the CUNY Graduate Center and the Democratic Socialists of America Fund

FEB. 20-22

CUNY Graduate Center (NYC)
365 5th Ave at 34th St.

Beating the Bush Agenda

Friday 7:00-9:00pm

-with-

Frances Fox Piven

Distinguished Professor of Political Science, the Graduate Center, CUNY; author of Poor People's Movements and many other works; Honorary Chair of Democratic Socialists of America

Leslie Cagan

National Coordinator, United for Peace and Justice

Joseph Schwartz

Chair, Dept. of Political Science, Temple University; Chair, Steering Committee of the Democratic Socialists of America

The Future of Radical Democracy

Saturday 3:30-5:30pm

-with-

Cornel West

Department of Religion, Princeton University; author of Race Matters and many other books; Honorary Chair of Democratic Socialists of America

Steve Max

Director of Organizing and Training, Midwest Academy

Bertha Lewis

Executive Director, New York ACORN; Co-chair, Working Families Party

↖ These plenaries are $5 at the door if not registered for whole conference

SATURDAY FEBRUARY 21

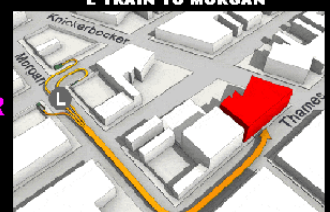

@ OFFICE OPS BROOKLYN 57 THAMES ST

8PM-1AM

$5

THIS IS A BENEFIT FOR LIFE AFTER BUSH

www.ydsusa.org

4 BANDS IN A HUGE SPACE WITH AMAZING SOUND. THE NIGHT ALSO INCLUDES A CONCESSION STAND, SMOKING ROOM, RADICAL DOCUMENTARIES, EXPERIMENTAL VIDEOS AND PINBALL!